

PRESS RELEASE

FAREWELL FOR CLASS - XII

Krishna Public School Nehru Nagar, bid adieu to the class - XII students decorously on the 7th Feb, 2015. Bidding farewell with great pomp and show has been a tradition for KPS which students store in their memory with other very fond memories of the school.

The young ladies & gents came in their best attire. Saree for girls & suit for boys had been the dress code as always. The counsel members of class eleven had been called and it was them who compered, under the supervision of the teachers. The students looked like beautiful flowers in the garden of KPS and it was a proud privilege to watch them flitting around and glowing with delight. The smartly attired boys with their conscious grace were a sight to behold.

The programme started at 9.30 am and soon the huge hall of the school was filled to the brink of its capacity with the senior secondary students of the school. To make distinction the class eleven students at come in school uniform.

The eleventh standard students showed their respect for their seniors by cordially escorting them to their seats and generally making them comfortable.

The progrmmes started with the auspicious lighting of lamp by the school's Chairman and other dignitaries present in the auditorium. There were various melodious songs which were thoroughly enjoyed by the students & teachers alike. The Managing Director & Senior Principal Mr. Anand Kumar Tripathi welcomed then & wished them well for the future.

There were various prizes for the students based on the teachers observation of individual student - some such prizes went to Miss & Master - "most disciplined student of the school", miss & master melodious voice, miss & master full attendance etc. The students enjoyed these prizes to the maximum & the thundering applause greeted each nomination & finally the winners.

The presence of the dignitaries likes the Chairman of the school Mr. M. M. Tripathi, M.D & Sr. Principal Mr. Anand Kumar Tripathi, Secretary Mr. Pramod Kumar Tripathi, Director Primary wing Madam Snehlata, Director Personnel Mr. Alok Tripathi, Principal Administration Madam Savita, Principal Academics Mrs. Archana Mishra boosted the morale of the students. The vote of thanks was proposed by the Vice Principal Mr. K. K. Sharma. The programme was coordinated by Madam Shalinin Bedi, Madam Bhashwati & other teachers. The show was compered by students - Vidhi, Viha & Anamika.

The day was concluded with a sumptuous lunch in the school's quadrangle.

The farewell would always remain in the mind of the students who would fondly recall the endeavor made by the alma matter to send them off with so much encouragement and cheer which was brimming with love and care that the KPS family always feel for their students.

Principal
Krishna Public School
Nehru Nagar, Bhilai

