

Date : 25.04.2015

PRESS RELEASE

The World Heritage Exhibition in KPS, Nehru Nagar

To commemorate the World Heritage Day the students of Class III to VIII of Krishna Public School, Nehru Nagar had arranged an exhibition in their huge Natraj Hall on the 25th of April ' 2015 to enlighten the people and pay homage to the renowned Historical structures of the world. The students and the teachers had laboriously & diligently worked in creating a very pleasing and informative atmosphere with numerous working and static models. The entire exhibition was divided into 6 countries - India, Spain, Africa, China, Australia & Japan.

The models were based on the famous heritage sites of the mentioned countries, the famous personalities there, their cuisine, the dresses they wore & even the animals found in these countries.

The spectators got to see small replica of the pyramid sphinx the Great Wall of China, the Heaven's Temple of China. The Howrah Bridge. Taj Mahal, Red Fort and many more renowned structures.

Models of Panda bear - found in China, the Camel - ship of the Desert, the leopard. Kangaroos - marsupials of Australia made a pleasing and entertaining sight. Students had made games of Quiz to further entertain the spectators.

Mahatma Gandhi, Rani Laxmi Bai, Nelson Mandela & the Cricketer Don Bradman were some which stood out among the others.

The students had even prepared some cuisines of these countries and displayed them artistically. Spain's famous Tomatina festival had also not escaped the notice of the students who pleased everyone by a very brief exhibition of the festival with accurate explanation of the same for the benefit of the spectators.

Beautiful girls in cute Japanese costumes of Kimono and elaborate hair dos were seen serving guests demurely were a sight to behold.

The exhibition was in _____ by the Chairman and Vice Chairman of Krishna Group of Institutions Mr.M.M.Tripathi & Mr. Anand Kumar Tripathi who praised the effort of the students and the teachers and said it is due to their hard work that they were able to display such beautiful exhibits in such a short duration. Mr. Anand Kumar Tripathi said he could visualize the world within the four walls of room.

The Principal Mrs. Savita Tripathi praised and congratulated the teachers. She highlighted the importance of co - curricular training for the students for the development of an all round personality. Taking an earnest interest into the matter the school will start a Summer Camp from 29th of April to 9th of May where students would be taught various things the yoga, meditation, karate, cooking without fire. Art & Craft, Music & Dance etc. Beautiful samples of art and craft and some mouth watering samples of what to be cooked during this time were on display to give the parents and students some ideas of what to expect during this Summer Camp. The students would be taken to visit M. M. Funcity on the 8th of May.

Overall, as the first exhibition of the year, it was a very memorable and successful endeavor of the students. Some of the student who were there to explain various models for the parents and outsiders were - Shristi Garg, Anshi Agrawal, Shambhavi, Devyani, Arona and Suryansh Tripathi.

The teachers who assisted were Mrs. Bobby Das, Seema Issar, Seema Mazumdar, Tanushree Bose, Priya Vaishnav, Juhi Naaz, Vaishali Jagdale, Kanchan, Sarika, Jaya James etc.

The Headmistress Madam Prashi Tiwari & Mrs. Monika Sengupta attended the exhibition along with the Chief designer Mrs. Rakhi Tripathi.

Principal

Krishna Public School
Nehru Nagar, Bhilai

