

The Cultural Extravaganza

Music and Dance is the elixir of life and so is any forms of art.

Krishna Public School, Nehru Nagar is an institution which not only given precedence to academic excellence but realizes the importance of every form of art that is the God's gift to the talented individuals.

A cultural extravaganza 'Pragyotsav' was organized by Krishna Music & Dance College in the Krishna Public School premises on the 3rd of August 2015. It's a 3 days competition which will observe its closing ceremony on the 6th of August 2015.

Pragyotsav is not restricted to the field of music and dance alone on the 3rd Aug. the drawing and painting and music vocal competition was held 4th Aug. has been kept for dance competitions Band and Shit compt. will be on the 5th of Aug'15.

For the painting competition where 15/20 schools had participated and showed their mettle. The students were extraordinarily good their reception into the world of colours was tremendous. Some of the beautiful paintings made its way to the top of the category.

There were 4 groups A/B/C and D and group paintings. The topics were given on spot. For the group painting the topic given was the 'Nepal Earthquake'. The paintings were judged by eminent painters who'd consented to preside as judges.

On the 4th of Aug. the dance competitions was held 20 schools had participated the solo dances had been categorized into A/B/C groups. There were 20 presentations in each category. Group dance had been divided into 2 categories A & B.

The dance were expertly executed by capable dancers whose performances were a feast for the eyes. The learned Judge of the day was Ms. Sangeeta Choubey who is extremely eminent in her field. She has held various workshops and won many awards.

The entire programme is being supervised by the Krishna Music College, Nehru Nagar with Madam Jyoti Sharma and the other faculty members taking painstaking care for its faultless execution. The school's students council members are ever present with their assistance.

The entire programme is a stupendous platform for the participants.

Principal

