Pragyotsav – 2016

The National Cultural Extravaganza

Pragyotsav 2016, the National Cultural Extravaganza, organized by KPS, Nehru Nagar, saw the successful culmination of its 4th Day on the 23rd Aug. 2016. This day the competitions were of classical solo and classical group dances.

Plenty schools from different parts of the state had come to participate. Great number of students proved their mettle on the stage with their well choreographed colourful performance.

The Judges were Dr. Anuradha Dubey and Madam Vinneta Rajput who were Kathak Exponent, Smt. Tamanna Rajesh Nair and Shri Swapnil Dhotra the Bharatnatyam and Kuchipudi Experts.

The Chief Guest of the competition was Smt. Krishna Tripathi the Founder and Director of Krishna Group of Institutions.

Dr. Anuradha Dubey in her speech said that however educated an individual might be, he should pursue a form of art or other because art develops aesthetic qualities in a person. It also softens one's outlook and make him more tolerant to others' flaws. She said since KPS propagates all form of arts thus students should take advantage of this.

Madam Krishna Tripathi blessed everyone and said that she hoped everyone would successfully progress in their lives and live a satisfied and fulfilled existence.

Madam Savita the Principal of the school congratulated the teachers, students and the participants'. She said without the cooperation of her teachers and council members of the school the programme would not have progressed so flawlessly.

The school shows its appreciation for the regular media coverage by Dianik Bhaskar and Raipur Doordarshan.

Mrs. Rakhi Tripathi the Chief Designer of the school lend her indispensable support to the programme.
