

26th Annual Fiesta Indradhanush

Live your truth, express your feelings, share your enthusiasm, take action towards your dreams, dance and sing to your music and embrace your blessings. Make today worth remembering.

With these thoughts Krishan Public School Nehru Nagar celebrated its 26th Annual Fiesta Indradhanush on the 22nd of December 2018. The school was decorated in its colourful best with strings of lights & beautiful rangolies. There was a feeling of festivity in the air that embraced everyone.

Mr. Devendra Yadav the MLA Bhilai Nagar was the Chief Guest of the occasion. The other dignitaries present were the Chairman of the school Mr. M.M. Tripathi, Vice Chairman Mr. Anand Tripathi, Director (Personnel) Mr. Alok Tripathi, Principal Madam Sabita and all the other executive members of the school committee.

The Chief Guest was greeted at the school gate by the Executive Committee, the Head Boy and Girl and other teachers with tilak and decorously escorted to grace their seats. The programme commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the Chief Guest accompanied by the executives of the school. The choir group sang the devi vandana, creating an auspicious ambience.

The Annual Report Readers, in their smart, snazzy uniform brought to the audience attention the various achievements of the school throughout the academic session. Their unique presentation set the tune for the evening.

Madam Sabita welcomed the guests and highlighted on the multifarious activities of the school that emblazoned its name far and wide.

The Principal's speech was followed by various colourful programmes that kept the guests highly entertained. Each presentation was enthusiastically applauded by the audience which boosted the performers' performances.

The Chairman's speech was highly motivational. He highlighted the significance of selfless devotion towards work and appreciated the teachers for their guidance of the students towards greater heights of success. He said without 'gurus' the capabilities trapped in the mind of the students would die in ignominious darkness.

The awards are the mark of achievements. They encourage the students to perform better. Awards are bestowed to recognize the endeavor a student has put in his path for perfection KPS Nehru Nagar puts its stamp of recognition to the meritorious students by awarding a total scholarship of 2,60,000/- each year. The Chief Guest and the dignitaries gave away these cash prizes to the awardees along with certificates and mementoes.

The Chief Guest expressed his pleasure at being present to be a part of such, effortlessly beautiful presentations of the talents. He also appreciated the hard work that KPS is putting into nurturing and boosting its students. He also applauded the efforts of the teachers who worked diligently behind the curtains to enable the students to put forward their best. He appreciated the school for recognizing the talents of the students which serve as an impetus to their stellar performance.

There were thirty stage performances which was a mind-boggling number but the unflagging enthusiasm of the audience warmed the heart of the performers and they gave the best performances.

Among all the dance numbers that were performed, few dances need special mention and they were – The Kathak dance Krishna Stuti that brought the message that with the name of Lord Krishna a human life can get the highest elevation. Then the dance which was named Akhand Bharat showed how people still aspire for an undivided India. People of India had been broken hearted when the country was partitioned. Murshid khele Holi – Devotees become so immersed in their devotion that nothing matters to them anymore. Since God is responsible for every ups and downs of life therefore we should enjoy all the life's various aspects and colours.

Teachers are the pillars of the society. Their contributions to the society deserve high appreciation. In recognition of the great service of the teachers in building the students future, KPS Nehru Nagar awards the teachers of the school every year. The name of the teachers awarded were Madam Ravindar Kaur, Madam Minni Saxena and Madam Suparna Das. In recognition of hard work and selfless devotion towards school Mr. Pushpraj & Mr. Anil Verma were awarded with a cash award of Rs. 3000/-. Mr Hariram Tripathi (office staff) was also awarded for his untiring contribution and perfection in his work.

The children are highly imagination they have vast store of caliber which is tapped by the teachers in the form of the school magazine Zenith. The Magazine cages the colourful views of the students which is so awaited by them every year. The Chief Guest released the magazine Zenith to everyone's gladness.

The evening drew to its successful completion with the Vote of Thanks, proposed by the Head Boy & Head Girl of the school.
